

Prevent Fires

Learn the Sounds

of Fire Safety

When you hear the "beep," get out, stay out and call 911.

When you hear the "chirp," it's time to change the batteries or install a new alarm.

For the deaf or hard of hearing, install bed shaker and strobe light alarms that will alert that person to fire.

